15. Upon information and belief, the Employer's failure, neglect, and refusal to remit the proper contributions and reports to Plaintiffs constitutes a violation of the C.B.A. between the Employer and the Union, wherein the Funds are third-party beneficiaries.

21. Section 502 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Section 1132) provides that, upon an Employer violation of Section 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. 1145), which requires employers to pay fringe benefit contributions in accordance with collective bargaining agreements and trust indentures, a court must award payment to a fund of the unpaid fringe benefit contributions, plus statutory damages and interest on the unpaid principal, both computed at a rate set forth in the United States Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. Section 6621), together with reasonable accountant fees, attorney fees, audit fees, and costs and disbursements.

22. The Employer's failure to pay has injured the Funds by delaying the investment of fringe benefit contributions and causing unnecessary administrative costs for the Funds and has injured the participants and beneficiaries and other contributing employers of the benefit plan in the form of lower benefits and higher contribution amounts.

23. Accordingly, the Employer is liable to Plaintiffs under the C.B.A. and any Trust Indenture concerning the payment of fringe benefit contributions and under Sections 502 and 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. Sections 1132 and 1145) due to the failure to pay contributions when they are due.

30. The financial integrity of the Funds and the allocation of proper eligibility and credit to the members are determined and based upon prompt and accurate remittance of contribution reports and fringe benefit contributions from the Employer.

31. Plaintiffs have no adequate remedy at law to ensure that the Employer will adhere to its continuing statutory and contractual obligations.

32. The failure of the Employer to promptly remit payment to the Funds will cause the Funds immediate and irreparable injury unless the Employer and its officers, agents, and servants are enjoined from failing, neglecting, and/or refusing to submit the required fringe benefit contributions and contribution reports to Plaintiffs.

33. By reason of the foregoing, Plaintiffs are entitled to a permanent injunction enjoining the Employer from any further or future violations of this or subsequent collective bargaining agreements with the Union, as such agreements apply to the obligations of the Employer to Plaintiffs herein.
